Financial reports shall be made accessible to all parties having legitimate interest in the company. Management shall provide regular reports to the Board which includes analysis of premium growth, underwriting performance, investment results, claims management and credit control.

A2. Internal Control and Risk Management – The Board shall foster and encourage a corporate environment of strong internal control, fiscal accountability, high ethical standards and compliance with the law and code of conduct. Further, an effective and comprehensive internal audit of the corporation's internal control system shall be carried out by independent and competent staff. Audit findings and recommendations shall be reported to the Board and senior management level of the corporation.

A3. Audit Commitment and Auditors – The Board, through its audit committee, shall establish and monitor the operations of a professional and independent internal audit office, and elevate accounting and auditing processes, practices and methodologies to international standards.

A4. Related Party Transactions – Related-party transactions shall be conducted in terms favorable to the company to safeguard the best interest of the company, its policyholders and stakeholders. In all cases, the provisions of Title 20, Chapter III of the Insurance Code shall be complied with.

IV. Rights of Stockholders and Protection of Minority Stockholders' Interest

The Board of Directors shall ensure that all rights of the stockholders as mandated or set forth in the Corporation Code of the Philippines, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company shall be respected.

The Board should be transparent and fair in the conduct of the annual and special stockholders' meetings of the corporation. The stockholders should be encouraged to personally attend such meetings. If they cannot attend, they should be apprised ahead of time of their right to appoint a proxy. Subject to the requirements of the by-laws, the exercise of that right shall not be unduly restricted and any doubt about the validity of a proxy should be resolved in stockholders' favor.

It is the duty of the Board to promote the rights of the stockholders, remove impediments to the exercise of those rights and provide an adequate avenue for them to seek timely redress for breach of their rights.

The Board should take the appropriate steps to remove excessive or unnecessary costs and other administrative impediments to the stockholders' meaningful participation in meetings, whether in person or by proxy. Accurate and timely information should be made available to the stockholders to enable them to make a sound judgment on all matters brought to their attention for consideration or approval.

Although all stockholders should be treated equally or without discrimination, the Board should give minority stockholders the right to propose the holding of meetings and the items for discussion in the agenda that relate directly to the business of the corporation.

V. Public Accountability

The corporation ensures that their dealings with the public are always conducted in a fair, honest and equitable manner. Its officers and employees shall avoid conflicts of interest and shall not engage in any unfair or deceptive act or conduct that constitute unfair trade practices.

VII.VI. Responsibility for Good Governance

The Board of Directors and the management commit themselves to the principles and leading practices contained in this Corporate Governance Guidelines. Every effort necessary to create awareness of these Guidelines within the organization shall be undertaken, including the provision of a budget for its dissemination.

IX.VII. Amendments and Revisions

These Guidelines are not intended to be all-encompassing or self-limiting. The Board reserves its right to amend, modify, change or not enforce these Guidelines at any time in the future where such is deemed desirable or necessary. The Board shall periodically review these Guidelines to adjust to changing times and business circumstances.
